For this ninth interim response, the Department has processed 501 pages of potentially responsive records captured in the agency's search. Of these 501 pages, I am releasing two (2) pages in their entirety, and I am further releasing 40 pages in part, with portions redacted, pursuant to Exemption 5 of the FOIA (5 U.S.C. §552 (b)(5)). Additionally, I am withholding 12 pages in their entirety pursuant to Exemption 5 (5 U.S.C. §552 (b)(5)). Also, I am referring 126 pages to the Department of State, and 225 pages to the United States Agency for International Development (USAID) for review and direct response to you. Furthermore, I have determined that 89 pages should be sent for consultation to other executive branch agencies and returned to this Department for final disposition. Finally, I have determined that seven (7) pages are either duplicative of records previously referred to other agencies for direct response to you, or are not responsive to your request.

FOIA exemption (b)(5) protects inter-agency or intra-agency memoranda or letters which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency. This exemption protects documents that would be covered by any privilege an agency could assert in a civil proceeding. These privileges include, among others, the deliberative process privilege, the attorney-client privilege, and the attorney work-product privilege

We will continue to review the remaining records as efficiently and expeditiously as possible, consistent with our available resources. Should you have questions or concerns regarding the Department's response and/or the processing of your request, any such issues should be communicated to your legal counsel and Department of Justice Attorney representing the Department in this matter.

Sincerely yours,

Michael S. Marquis
